Abstract—Morality is an on- going process in the life of human beings from its primitive stage to the present stage. Moral ideas have undergone many changes during long period. This change is reflected concerned with beliefs and actions which are in is reflected in two more ideas in contemporary moral philosophy- one is abstract-meta-ethics and other is concrete--Applied ethics. One particular kind of applied ethics that raises distinct concern is Bio- ethics. Bio- ethical issues such as 'abortion', 'euthanasia' etc often involve beings whose moral standing is much more contentious.

The belief about what is right and what is wrong, what ought to be done and what not to be done is generally defined as moral belief. But, in this age of globalization all human beings with their rapid developments feel insecure in every spheres of life. The problems of bio-ethical issues like Abortion, Euthanasia etc are especially urgent in the present day. They are rather the problems of human beings in situations in which not only ethical decision is necessary for every moments of our life. Thus, in applied ethics ethical principles are required to be applied to solve practical moral problems.

Thus, the present paper focuses three major points.

Firstly, it discusses about 'Right to Life '.The principles of right to life would allow both abortion and euthanasia if the situation permits.

Secondly, the problems of bio-ethical issues like abortion and euthanasia has been taken in discussion and.

Thirdly, arguments for and against 'Abortion' and 'Euthanasia'. Thus, in the end it is about the "Right to life and Right to die" .If someone has the 'right to life' than he also have the ' right to die' if situation permits.
